

UNION-PRAGATI

Union Bank Officers' Platform for Research
Advancement, Growth And Training Initiatives

Pragati Diaries

CHRONICLE OF A TRANSFORMATIVE BEGINNING

Powered by

Union Bank Officers Association
(Kerala State)

Affiliated to AIUBOF & AIBOC, Reg. No. 124/87 (Re-Reg. No. TU19457)

ib Institute Of
Banking Studies

Union Pragati - the journey of knowledge, growth, and collective aspiration - commenced on 23rd November 2025, marking a new chapter in our pursuit of excellence. Conceived as a platform to empower officers with progressive learning, the program is being conducted online with the technical collaboration of the Institute of Banking Studies.

Hosted on the Zoom platform, Union Pragati witnessed an inspiring participation of nearly 1,200 officers from across the country, representing diverse branches, regions, and experiences. The event evolved into a vibrant confluence of ideas, aspirations, and shared commitment to professional growth.

The inaugural session opened with a warm and graceful Welcome Address by Com. D. S. Gaikwad, General Secretary, UBOA Maharashtra, setting the tone for an enriching day ahead.

Com. Dhondiram Gaikwad

This was followed by the Inception Address by Com. Sreenath Induchoodan, All India Assistant Secretary, AIBOC, who articulated the vision, spirit, and purpose behind the concept of Pragati. His words laid the ideological foundation for what would become a remarkable learning movement.

Com. Sreenath Induchoodan

Shri. Suresh Chandra Teli

The program was formally inaugurated by Shri. Suresh Chandra Teli, Chief General Manager, whose inspiring presence elevated the gathering. He appreciated the initiative, underscored the significance of a well-informed and dynamic human resource, and congratulated Team Pragati for championing the cause of continuous learning. His message on the role of knowledgeable officers in shaping the bank's future deeply resonated with the participants.

Com. Anand Bhukebag

President of the Union Bank Officers' Association, Karnataka, delivered his heartfelt felicitation address.

A series of rich academic sessions followed, led by eminent faculty members including Shri Pradeep Kulkarni, Shri Luqman Ali Khan, Shri. C. Raveendranathan, Shri. Raja D. Their sessions were insightful, interactive, and profoundly impactful, offering clarity, confidence, and direction to aspirants preparing for their professional advancement.

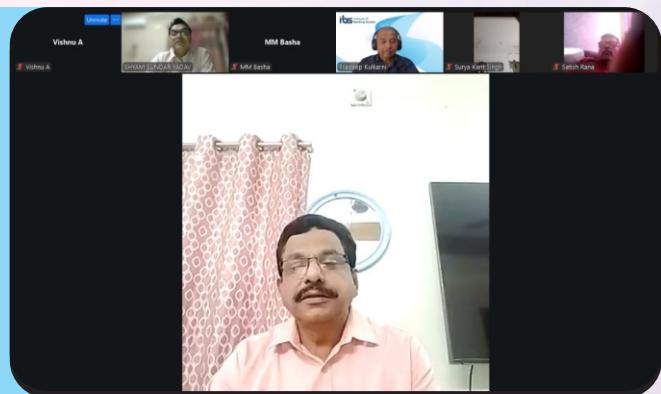

Throughout the day, the program was honoured by felicitations from distinguished leaders - Com. Harish Tayade, All India General Secretary of the SC/ST Employees' Association, and Shri Natarajan S, from the OBC Welfare Association both of them conveyed their goodwill and appreciation for this empowering initiative..

Com. Harish Tayade

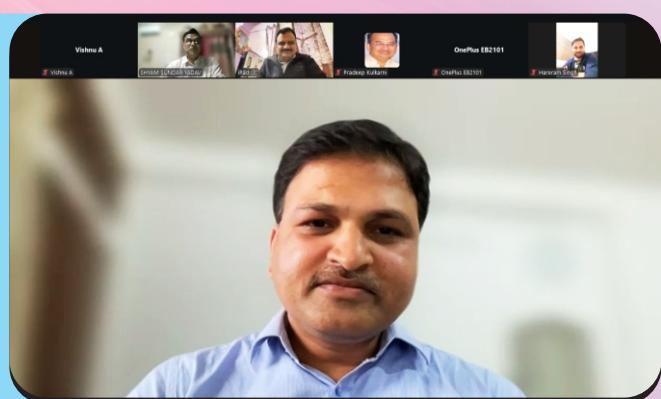

Shri. Natarajan S

The evening Valedictory Session brought the day to an inspiring close. Shri. Kalyan Varma, General Manager & Zonal Head, Bangalore, delivered a compelling address on the importance of structured learning, disciplined preparation, and professional ambition. His guidance left a lasting impression on all who attended.

Shri. Kalyan Varma

The day's formal proceedings concluded with the Valedictory Address by Shri. Biraja Prasad Das, Chief General Manager & Zonal Head, Mumbai. His thoughtful words, encouragement, and motivating message elevated the spirit of Union Pragati and reinforced its purpose.

Shri. Biraja Prasad Das

Union Pragati is more than a training - it is an experience of collective learning, personal enrichment, and shared vision. It strengthens bonds, expands horizons, and ignites a renewed commitment to professional excellence.

For every participant, it is truly a remarkable journey of learning - one that will continue to inspire growth in the days to come.

The programme was compered by Masters of Ceremonies Com. Syam Sundar Yadav and Com. Silpi from the Union Bank Officers' Association, Delhi.

Com. Syam Sundar Yadav

Com. Silpi